MRS. K. L. POWELL
DIES SUDDENLYCoroner McClintock Called But Does Not Conduct an Inquest.Mrs. Kienesia L. Powell, for many years employed as stenographer at the Brown Realty company, died suddenly at midnight at 111 West Boulevard.
Coroner McClintock was called, but has found no cause for investigation. Mrs.
Powell is survived by a mother and two sisters, now living in Los Angeles.
She was a widow. The body is being held by McBean, Simmons & Carr for instructions.

JOHN WADLINGTON.

John Wadlington died at Hotel Dieu last night from appendicitis, after a four weeks' struggle which would have been utterly impossible for one of less physical strength or of smaller courage.
Though he had been suffering more or less for several days, he did not suppose it serious and did not call a physi-cian until the trouble was so far developed that all that could be done was of no avail.Deceased was 23 years old, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Wadlington, of 901 Nevada street. Born and reared in El Paso, he graduated from the El Paso high school in the spring of 1906 and spent the two following years at the A. and M. college of Texas. His interest and ability along mechanical lines was notable and his short business career promising.He is mourned not only by a devoted father and mother, two brothers and a sister, but by neighbors and acquaintances who have been anxiously watching his fight.Funeral services for John E. Wadlington will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday at the residence, 901 Nevada street.
Rev. Caspar S. Wright officiating. Interment will be made by McBean, Simmons & Carr at Evergreen cemetery.

MRS. MATTIE EMARD.

Mrs. Mattie Emard, 24 years of age, died this morning at her residence in Highland Park. Accompanied by her mother the body will be shipped to Fayetteville, Ark., by McBean, Simmons & Carr.

JOHN D. DILLARD

Word has been received of the death at Lexington, Mo., of John D. Dillard, former member of the El Paso lodge of Elks. Mr. Dillard moved from El Paso many years ago and few of the present members of the local lodge remember him.SEWER COMMISSIONER GIVES CHASE TO BURGLARWhile Fred Hadlock and family were at his brother "Kid" Hadlock's house making a family call last night, a thief attempted to enter the house of Fred Hadlock, in Orchard Park, by way of a window. Choosing an inopportune time for his entry, the burglar came dangerously near being caught with the goods in his possession. Seeing a light in the house of his son, J. W. Hadlock, the city sewer commissioner, started to investigate with a shot gun. Going while the going was good, the second story window but it down the county road, disturbing nothing but the window and the Hadlock family's peace of mind.Owing to the illness of his wife, justice E. B. McClintock was not at his office today.

WILLIS HOTCHKISS, A MISSIONARY WITH A MISSION

He Goes About His Work in a Business Manner and Makes It a Business.True, Rev. Willis R. Hotchkiss is a missionary, but he is not the kind of missionary one reads about in the story books. He is a businesslike, clean cut, straightforward young man, with practicability sticking out all over him like electric sparks out of a sputtering trolley. In short, he is a missionary whirlwind with a cool head.In Mr. Hotchkiss, who comes as delegate to the El Paso laymen's missionary movement, is found the personification of the new idea in things missionary. He believes in practicability from start to finish. He believes that industry and Christianity must work hand in hand, but that the industry is vital. He does not believe in reaching a native to speak English and to wear European clothes. Mr. Hotchkiss comes from Africa, and he sums it up like this: "Don't make him an imitation white man, but a good negro."

Slow Work.

"It is slow work," sighs the missionary from Africa, but his face does not show an atom of discouragement. "But I am sure that they are being lifted," he adds. "We can tell when they are lifted, for they are of the very lowest, almost. It is not pleasant to deal with them, not pleasant in any way. It has been 14 years since I entered the field.
When Roosevelt came in he came by rail. I walked."Regarding the equation between the American negro and the African negro the visiting missionary has some interesting ideas. He says: "The American negro was started wrong. He was given the ballot too soon. That was the gravest mistake. So was created the race problem. We have none such in Africa. There it is a matter of man to man. We are teaching the negro to work. Now the son of the chief is plowing in the field."

Disappointed in Roosevelt.

"We were very disappointed that Mr.
Roosevelt did not visit any missions in Africa," said Mr. Hotchkiss. "When the hunting expedition was in Africa he journeyed but 12 miles from the Lumumba mission, and never even made a social call. After all Mr. Roosevelt had said we expected him to make some sort of investigation of the mission field. It would have had much weight."And speaking of hunting, and especially lions, this modest missionary is no slow one. True, he does not believe in killing anything just for the fun of the thing—as gallant Theodoradoes—but he has killed often, and perhaps run oftener, as he himself does not deny.

Lion Carries Off Tent.

When the missionary was first entering into "darkest" Africa, a friendly lion carried off a tent next to his own. And then he had to kill a rhinoceros to keep the Mr. Kine from killing him. Then, with another missionary he was pursued by 11 lions and climbed a tree, finally shooting three of them and escaping.

But never has missionary Hotchkiss killed for other reasons than self-protection and desire of food. He is of a certain order, unknown to the majority of Americans, the Quakers."Friends." Perhaps it is because the Friends are the most friendly and kindly in inclination of all religious sects, perhaps not.At any rate this particular Friend does not believe with Mr. Roosevelt that joy may be had through the sheer love of slaughter.Globe Flour, best by test, Cardui, the woman's tonic, to any lady who is in need of medicine," writes Mrs.

I. A. Decker, of this place."It has been very beneficial to me and I can say that there is nothing like it for weak women.""For five years I was not able to do my work. Half of my time I spent in bed. I suffered with female weakness and took such nervous spells I could not stand on my feet. I suffered with my back and side, and fell off till I became a skeleton.""At last I took Cardui and now I am well and happy and can do my own work."Cardui is prepared from the natuexperiments.The Cardui ingredients are imported at great expense directly from abroad

Herald Ads Bring Results.

On motion of Mr. Frenger a vote of appreciation was extended the local and helpful manner in which the paign conducted by the chamber through the El Paso Herald some months ago, Mr. Holt said that he was sure that this advertising was of great value to the town and valley; that he was a believer in advertising.R. A. Sims presented the matter of an article on New Mexico started published in a recent edition of Review of Reviews, an article which Mr. Sims stated was not only misleading but in many instances absolutely false. He followed his statement with a motion

IN RIO GRANDEGage Shows 1000 Second Feet a Minute Now at Selden Dam.The first of the spring freshets has caused the river to rise at Selden, N.
M., where the diversion dam for the Mesilla Valley is located. Engineer Earl Patterson telephoned from the dam at 2 o'clock that the river had risen 700 second feet in the past 24 hours. The water line on the government gages has been low during the past two weeks, scarcely 300 second feet passing the diversion dam.The gages now show 1000 second feet at Selden and a part of the flood water is expected to reach here Thursday afternoon. Much of it will be used in the upper valley for irrigation but a sufficient quantity is expected here to fill the two main canals on the Mexican and American sides.

MUST GET TAGS
FOR PET DOGSCanine Causes Excitement at Station—Several Dogs Are Killed.Get a tag for Fido. The booby man of all dog kind will get him if you don't watch out. These are dog days.
When it begins to become warm, says the dog alarmist, the dogs begin to become mad. As proof, somebody thought, a dog went mad at the union station this morning. Before the police force could arrive, seven women nearly fainted.The dog? Oh, he ran down and jumped in the river. Sort of self sacrifice—rather than cause any trouble.
An today the police have shot three dogs already. No telling how many they will shoot before dark. Yesterday they shot one.So if you have a loving Towser, or Bowler, or even a safe little curley tailed Fido, get a license. Kick about it afterward, but get a tag first.
